Loving & Caring Decisions With Felicia

Hello again everyone, and how was your week? Today I want to talk about honesty and integrity. Even though they may seem the same, with honesty, you can trust things to be as they appear; you don't pretend to be something that you are not, telling the truth, being open, not taking advantage of others, accepting responsibility, facing the consequences of your actions, and always holding yourself accountable.

Integrity on the other hand is standing up for what you believe is right, living by your highest values, following your moral or ethical convictions and doing the right thing in all circumstances – even if no one is watching.

Yes they are quite similar, that's because Honesty is one of the seven aspects of Integrity, which also includes Respect, Generating trust, Pride, Responsibility, Keeping promises and Helping others.

Why did I choose to speak on Honesty and Integrity today? It's because here at Advantage Funeral & Cremation Services-Franklin-Strickland Chapel, we strive every day to embody Honesty and Integrity.

We are a business serving our community and beyond, therefore we need to be honest and open with our clients and families and do it all with integrity. It is respecting our families and their deceased loved ones, ensuring that our families' trust in us is completely validated, keeping our promises, helping others, taking responsibility and holding ourselves accountable.

Advantage Funeral & Cremation Services-Franklin-Strickland Chapel stands firmly on Honesty and Integrity, and will continue to do so. Our Directors, (Bradley Wilkey & Felicia Lashley-Verrett) are here for you to answer any questions or concerns you may have; no question is minor, if it's important to you then it is important to us. Once again we offer Prearrangement Services with affordable monthly payment plans and we are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Have a great week everyone! As always I look forward to hearing from all of you.
